Come and See

A Retreat in Everyday Life

for the Clergy in

Canterbury Cathedral

21-26 May 2012

The Week Offers:

- ❖ An individually guided retreat in the midst of everyday life.
- ❖ A unique experience which is different each time
- ❖ Prayer Guides are trained laity, religious and clergy who are experienced in retreat ministry.
- ❖ Prayer Guides on this week have been chosen from outside the Diocese or are from a different tradition.
- ❖ Your assigned Prayer Guide will accompany you for a week on your own individual journey in absolute confidentiality.

Come and See

Your Experience:

- ❖ A retreat which enables you to remain at home and in your parish. (It is helpful to lighten your diary for the week)
- ❖ A meeting with your appointed Prayer Guide for half an hour each day at an agreed time in one of the beautiful chapels in the Cathedral.
- ❖ A period of private prayer at home based on Scripture, agreed by you and your Prayer Guide relating to your individual journey.
- ❖ Creating time and space over five days to receive a fresh experience of the love of God.
- ❖ Saturday breakfast in the ISC . Meeting with others who have journeyed on the Week
