CALENDAR OF PRAYER

‘Praying for each other; praying with each other’

‘God waits for us; waits for our recognition, understanding and response to his love...’
W.H. Vanstone
1 AUG  ELHAM DEANERY: CHAPLAINS

Pray for all those exercising chaplaincy ministry - formally and informally - within Schools, uniformed organisations, residential care communities, community clubs, businesses, health care groups, prisons, police, armed services and in sport. May God give them wisdom to respond to the opportunities given, to be assured of their calling to be witnesses to Christ. May they know the support of local churches and see God at work where ever they go!

2 AUG  MISSIONAL LEARNING COMMUNITY

Please pray today for the Missional Learning community gathering, worshipping, praying and witnessing in our deanery. Pray that signs of a living faith will spring up in unexpected places. Pray that we will dare to join with God in creating a caring, sustainable and growing Christian presence. Teach us to listen to the voice of God, and to follow where he leads us. May we be a means by which the love God has for the world is shared. Through our acts of loving service and discipleship, may we share the good news.

Anglican Communion:

Please pray for all the bishops who would have been gathered in Canterbury, Kent for the Lambeth Conference

3 AUG  PRAYING FOR EACH OTHER

As footsteps make their way along the paths to our churches, may our pilgrimage be made more certain by the guidance of Christ.

As the doors of our churches slowly open again, may our hearts open anew to the love of Christ.

As bread is once more broken at the altars of our churches, may our brokenness mould us closer to the likeness of Christ.

As the lights of our churches once more shine out in the darkness, may we also shine brighter with the light of Christ. Temples of Your Spirit, build your kingdom in us today. Amen (Prayer request written by Rev Simon Tillotson, Team Vicar of All Saints and St Peter’s Whitstable)

We therefore ask prayers for all those who are unable to attend worship in our churches, but who would benefit from live streamed services, and also those who do not have the means to be able to access digital worship. We ask God’s blessing on our endeavours, that we may continue to create and renew connections with the wider community and our churches.

As for so many others, the Coronavirus pandemic has created a huge amount of work for the Communications Team as we seek to help churches understand all the latest guidance, as well as share stories of hope. We’re working hard on a digital-only edition of Outlook Magazine, which we hope to get out over the Summer. We’re looking forward to welcoming Marilyn back from maternity leave in August as our part-time Communications Officer, as well as (hopefully) finding some space for rest and refreshment, to energise us for the Autumn. Thank you so much for your prayers – and for the inspiring stories we’re hearing from our churches every day.

Loving God, though our destination is not yet clear, may we trust in your graceful promises; though we are uncertain of ourselves, may we be rooted in your loving regard; though our attention is inclined to wander, may we hear the things you are saying, and notice how you are moving; though we often neglect your influence, may we be convicted of your power to change, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

What are we noticing about God’s movement, what are we learning?

What might we let go of so that we can enter God’s promised future for us?

May we ask God to make us ‘detectives of divinity’, students of the movement of the Holy Spirit.

LISTENING ON THE WAY

Thank you so much for journeying with us through this year’s Thy Kingdom Come Novena and the Diocesan Day of Prayer and Pilgrimage. Having re-imagined the whole thing for lockdown, we had no idea quite what to expect, and we were hugely blessed to see so many of you getting involved. It felt like we really did pray together from all over the diocese.

Our theme was ‘Listening on the Way’, and we would very much like to know what you’ve been hearing, learning and discovering from God, whether last week or over the past few months. Thanks to all of you who’ve already sent us your thoughts and pictures. We’re enjoying looking through them.

We know it can be daunting to answer the question: ‘What have you heard from God’, and we really do want to share more widely in what you are seeing and learning. So we’ve devised a short, simple questionnaire to help you share your insights with us, and we’d be grateful if you’d take 10 minutes or so to fill it in.

Thank you

PENTECOST TO HARVEST 2020

Changing Lives Prayer Network

God ever-now:

- As we celebrate the joy of Pentecost, free our hearts afresh to sing your praise.
- Be our still point in this turning world of loss, change and hope, as we look to you for solace, understanding and guidance.
- Transform our ‘distancing’ into new networks of connection.
- Reveal to us the work of the Spirit in the life of our neighbours, schools, family, friends and wider communities.
- As we give thanks for your Spirit poured out on all people, hear our prayers for keyworkers and those working in high-risk occupations at this time.
- Keep our hearts tender and generous towards our global neighbours – nations even less prepared than us for pandemic.
- With the warming glow of Pentecost at our backs, may we step more confidently into the future, knowing you dwell with us and in us.

Image: Come Holy Spirit! Primrose Northrop 2020
Trinity of love, you embrace us in our needfulness; You stand with us as we face difficulties and trials; You dance with us into the unknown. Strengthen our resolve to follow your steps, Keep our hearts open to love and joy, As we journey together in hope. Amen.

If you were to tell others the story of your church’s journey through the pandemic, what would feature most prominently? Through these months of pandemic transition, what are you noticing about yourselves, God, others and creation? Name the gifts of God which are sustaining you, your loved ones and your local communities.
