Programme for spouses of licensed clergy

Lenten Quiet Morning at The Quiet View

Saturday 3 March

The Revd Peter Ingrams, who is the Diocesan Local Ministries and Growth Adviser, will lead a Quiet Morning for us.

We shall start with coffee at 10.00am and finish with a light lunch provided at 1.00pm. No charge.

Venue: The Quiet View, Kingston, Canterbury, CT4 6JQ.

Booking: Please email Gisela (titled "Quiet Morning") by 28 February for catering purposes and so that directions can be sent to you.

Evening at The Marlowe Theatre, Canterbury

Wednesday 18 April at 7.30pm

A chance to see the "Sunset Boulevard" with music by Andrew Lloyd Webber. One of the great all-time musicals, Sunset Boulevard is a story of romance and obsession. A limited number of seats, priced £31.75 each, are reserved for the back stalls. There will be a refund on the day if we take up more than 15 tickets so final price depends on take-up.

Option of supper beforehand at the Marlowe Green Room (menu of 2 courses for £16.50 currently).

Welcome: Members of your family also if they would like to come.

Booking: Please send the enclosed slip to be received by Margaret by 9 February. Please email her as well so she can expect it.

Welcome Evening

Wednesday 27 June 7.00pm – 9.30pm

Join the spouses of those on retreat, prior to being ordained deacon or priest, for an informal supper and concluding with Compline.

Venue: Upway, 52 St Martins Hill, Canterbury, CT1 1PR.

Booking: Please email Margaret (titled "Supper") by 23 June.

Afternoon Visit to Belmont Gardens, Belmont Park, Throwley, Faversham, ME13 0HH

Saturday 15 September at 2.00pm

An opportunity to visit some lovely gardens, including a walled garden and a large kitchen garden, and end with afternoon tea.

Welcome: Your spouse, children/grandchildren.

Entry Cost: Adults £5, concessions £4, children £2.50 – additional cost for tea.

Booking: Please email Gisela (titled "Walk") by 12 September so that detailed directions can be sent to you and tea arrangements can be made.

Murder Mystery Evening with supper in Maidstone

Friday 9 November 7.00 – 10.00pm

A bring and share supper and some fun!

Welcome: Your spouse also if they would like to come.

Venue: The Archdeaconry, 4 Redcliffe Lane, Penenden Heath, Maidstone, ME14 2AG.

Booking: Please email Julie Taylor (titled "Murder") if at all possible by 31 October to allow planning of the murder mystery and so parking information can be sent.

Although you are asked to let us know by a certain date, please don't let this stop you coming at the last moment but we suggest you ring either Margaret or Gisela to check arrangements.
